The stylistic features

② (Moby Dick)

"The harpoon was darted; the stricken whale flew forward; with igniting velocity the line ran through the grooves; — ran foul. Ahab stooped to clear it; he did clear it; but the flying turn caught him round the neck, and voicelessly as Turkish mutes bowstring their victim, he was shot out of the boat, ere the crew knew he was gone. "

Who was Ahab

What happened to Ahab

③ (Hamlet) To be, or not to be – that is the question: Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune Or to take arms against a sea of troubles, And by opposing end them. To die – to sleep

Answer the author and the title

It is who's soliloquy? What troubled him

④ (A Rose for Emily) "I want some poison," she said to the druggist. She was over thirty men, still a slight woman, though thinner than usual with cold, haughty black eyes in a face the flesh of which was strained across the temples and about the eye-sockets as you imagine a lighthouse-keeper's face out to look. "I want some poison," she said.

"Yes, Miss Emily. What kind? For rats and such? I'd recom---?"

"I want the best you have. I don't care what land."

The druggist named several. "They'll kill anything up to an elephant. But what you want is---"

"Arsenic," Miss Emily said. "Is that a good one?"

"Is. . . arsenic? Yes, ma'am. But what you want----"

"I want arsenic."

A. Answer the author and the title

B. Why did she want arsenic

⑤ Of Studies

Studies serve for delight, for ornament, and for ability. Their chief use for delight, is in privateness and retiring; for ornament, is in discourse; and for ability, is in the judgment, and disposition of business. For expert men can execute, and perhaps judge of particulars, one by one; but the general counsels, and the plots and marshalling of affairs, come best, from those that are learned. To spend too much time in studies is sloth; to use them too much for ornament, is affectation;

to make judgment wholly by their rules, is the humor of a scholar

A . Answer the author and the title

B. What delight do you gain from you study of literature?

问答题 4×15 ‘=60 ‘

①The influence of Puritanism on the writing of Nathaniel Hawthorne

② The artistic features of Ezra Pound as an imagist poet③ The
